

Kerio View is perched on the edge of the Kerio Valley escarpment -- a branch of the Great Rift Valley of East Africa. It offers prospects of the Tugen Hills and Tiati, the sacred mountain of the Pokot people. Down in the valley, and central to the panoramic view, is Lake Kamnarok, set in the middle of the Rimoi Game Reserve and fed by the waters of the Kerio River.

The Bar

The management of Kerio View seeks to bring together local and overseas visitors in a friendly and relaxed environment to enjoy the unique view and undisturbed beauty of the Kerio escarpment. Indeed the motto of Kerio View is: "A Place to Relax".

Meet Mwangi the barman and ask him to mix you a cocktail (alcoholic or non-alcoholic); he is always looking for new ones.

The restaurant offers table d'hôte and à la carte menus with wide variety of dishes. Specialities include crispy Kerio View salads and different "home-made" breads.

Lunch and Dinner of the day are available. For many people, the full set lunch is too much and they prefer to take just a light meal in the middle of the day.

The à la carte provides many snack options in addition to heavier meals.

You may click on A La CARTE to see the choices and prices or on Menu du Jour for the set lunch / dinner of the day.
