

Kiwayu Safari Village Hotel is a barefoot luxury retreat located on the Kenya mainland in the most remote coast of the Kiunga Marine Reserve about 30 Miles North of Lamu Island, in a breathtakingly beautiful Bay opposite Kiwayu Island. Kiwayu, is a family owned Lodge, and was established in 1973 by Alfredo and Lisa Pelizzoli.

Kiwayu Safari Village Hotel is situated in a sheltered bay, on the edge of the Indian Ocean in the Kiunga Marine Reserve. Miles of deserted beaches with soft white sand and the soothing sound of waves will soon awaken the senses and lead you back to nature's eternal rhythms.

www.crocodileracers.com

Kiwayu Safari village Hotel bandas (18 cottages) spread along one kilometer of the sandy shoreline, built with great imagination, in the local Swahili tradition of palm thatch and woven matting floors.

The only sound you will hear is the lapping of the sea, the wind in the palms and bird song. Kiwayu Safari village Hotel bandas consists of a suite containing a spacious bedroom, a dressing area with twin basins, a shower with solar heated hot water and bidet.

Electrical lights are 24 hours. Each private thatched veranda offers you panoramic views across the lagoon from the comfort of your Swahili bed or hammock... and only a stone's throw from the water.

Kiwayu Safari village Hotel activities include Deep Sea Fishing, Lamu Excursions, Water-skiing, Evening Dhow Cruise, Sailing, Snorkeling / creek fishing / bird watching, Windsurfing, Surfing, Kayaking and Swimming in the pool.

Nairobi to Kiwayu by air/flight takes about 1 hour 50minuts then a short drive over the dunes to the Lodge. Kiwayu Safari Village Hotel can also be reached from Lamu where there is the option of a private air charter (15 minutes) , a speed boat (1 hour 40 minutes) or more romantically by dhow which will depends on the tides and winds.... may take 8 hours or more !