

Walking Wild in Laikipia Masai-land is a walking safari experience through some of Kenya's best wildlife viewing habitats – the Lewa Wildlife Conservancy and two Masai Community Conservation areas, Il Ngwesi and Lekurruki.

These three areas provide some of the best places in Kenya for walking in the wild and most stunning landscapes in Africa and are home to a wide variety of game including the "Big Five" (Rhino, Elephant, Lion, Leopard, Buffalo), over 420 species of birds, Reticulated Giraffe, Cheetah, numerous different antelopes, and endangered species such as the Grevy's Zebra and Sitatunga.

Walking wild Safaris in the wild are lead by professional guides. The 5 day walking safaris starting on the Lewa Wildlife Conservancy, recognized as one of Africa's top safari destinations. The walking route runs across Lewa through Il Ngwesi and ends at Lekurruki (Tassia), with all 5 nights spent camping out under the stars. The 3 nights Walking Safari starts from Lewa to Il Ngwesi.

Walking wild Safaris guests will traverse a variety of ecosystems, enabling them to experience the diversity of flora and fauna that Lewa Downs Wildlife Conservancy has to offer. The focus of the safari is learning about the ecosystems as well as the local Masai culture. Guests will be taught tracking techniques and other vital bush skills, as well as how to identify and understand the behavior of the insects, plants, and animals they come across.

Local Masai Morani (warriors) joins the guests to give insight into traditional Masai customs. Walking Safari is done in the cool hours of the day from 0730 Hours to 1200 Hours, usually four to five hours. Resting is done during the heat of the day and is followed by another walk in the evening exploring the areas around camp, for sundowners, etc. This is a walking safari supported by camels, however camels can be ridden when the terrain or route allows.
