

The Farm House Nakuru

Imagine a farm house build in the 1930s, with luxurious spaces for socializing, open dining room large enough to accommodate your every need and Warm yourself by the fire in the spacious and elegantly furnished living room or the TV room, Envision a porch that provides panoramic views of Lake Nakuru Park and the spectacular city lights of Nakuru town at night.

At the view of the Mau forest lies a quiet 5-bedroom treasure and cottages commonly known as Brians Inn the Farm house. This house has a strong history behind it. The Late ANTHONY MARTIN DONALD SETH-SMITH, a UK peerage and Kenya Regt; lived in that house. Now this farm house provides a lasting and homely environment for passing travelers, school field trip, family gatherings/re unions, business retreat, camping and wedding venues, just to mention a few. Whatever the occasion, Brians Inn The Farmhouse will provide a welcoming, one-of-a-kind experience.

AMENITIES

- Smoking Allowed
- Pets Allowed
- TV
- Internet
- Kitchen
- Free parking on premise
- Indoor Fireplace
- Family/Kid Friendly
- Suitable for Events