

The Carnation Hotel is one of Nakuru's pioneer Hotels. It has been providing to the local and tourist populace since late 70s. The hotel has TVs in all rooms, hot water and an in house cleaning facility for all dry cleaning needs. It also in close proximity to the city's central business district where supermarkets, mosques and famous night spots are conveniently located. The rooms are also very well maintained and secure with an ever vigilant staff to be at your beck and call when there is any concern.