

Casuarina Guest House Lamu Island Kenya overlooks the Lamu harbour, which is a beehive of activity in the early morninhg and late night as fishermen go about their trade. You will occassionally see turtles wandering around shallow edge of the beach, probably looking for something to eat. The Casuarina Guest House is a friendly place and very well frequented by budget travellers.

This budget bed & breakfast guest house in Lamu is suitable for young singles, honeymoon couple looking for a adventure off the beaten track, or for a romantic getaway.www.crocodileracers.com

Not particularly recommend for people with disabilities, older travellers, pet owners, families with small Children or families with teenagers.

We provide Lamu Boat transfer service from the Manda airstrip Jetty or Mokowe Jetty across the sea to Casuarina Guest House located in Lamu Stone town on Lamu Island.