

Kusini House Kizingoni Beach Lamu is a beautiful luxurious villa on Kizingoni Beach which is on Lamu Island just off the North Kenyan coast. Kusini sleeps eight guests in four spacious rooms, it is fully staffed including a chef and a boat captain for the private speed boat.

Kusini House Kizingoni Beach Lamu is the house of the South Monsoon Wind, has a very distinctive sand castle style. Like its neighbor, Jahazi House, it is built of coral block plastered in the local Meru finish, tinted a soft ochre yellow. However, the inner courtyard is more of a walled garden with two separate en-suite visitors' rooms in the sea facing corners.

Kusini House Kizingoni Beach Lamu has been designed in the Swahili style, with traditional plaster work and wooden beams and has gorgeous carved entrance door, Kusini has been furnished with stunning and sympathetic items from around the world.

The grassed, frangipani studded courtyard frames a large freshwater swimming pool, with long generous lounging steps to the side, that do not interfere with length swimmers, while providing an ideal haven for the less energetic.

Kusini House Kizingoni Beach Lamu main house has two large verandas, one overlooking the pool on the ground floor level; the first floor veranda overlooks the pool, the sea and the sunset. Here is the sundowner bar and a splendid master bedroom with two en-suite bathrooms, one with a traditional style wallowing bath. The bedroom has two private balconies, one with a double swinging hammock bed. www.crocodileracers.com

Returning to the ground floor level, to one side there is a spacious guest room with twin beds and, again, a private veranda; to the other side a TV/library room - with a large chandelier hall in the middle giving onto the pool veranda. Symmetry prevails throughout.

A private boat and captain allow you to explore the area's marine life with ease. A private chef and masseuse are also available to complete the holiday experience.
