

Lamu House Hotel is located on the idyllic coastal town of Lamu, and comprises of 2 Swahili houses with a central courtyard, renovated and adapted.

Lamu House is located on the idyllic coastal town of Lamu, and comprises of 2 Swahili houses with a central courtyard, renovated and adapted to the modern use. The hotel is 10 minutes by boat from Lamu Airport.

Dining at Lamu House Hotel is quite an experience: The Chef will delight your senses with an excellent local cuisine, which blends the best local ingredients.

Abundant fresh seafood, coconut and tropical fruit are all combined with the exotic spices that have been traded along the East African coast for centuries. Lamu Moonrise Restaurant is open from 8 am to 10 pm, offers excellent a la carte menu together with a selection of wines and spirits.

Lamu House Hotel also has one Swimming pool and two plunge pools. there are numerous terraces are available where guests can enjoy life at the pace of Lamu: where time seems to have stopped a hundred years ago.

Lamu House also has two dhows - traditional Swahili sailing boat renovated by Lamu House available for day/night excursions to discover the superb beaches of the archipelago, during which the crew will prepare an excellent lunch with fresh-caught fish. Snorkeling equipment and fishing lines are at your disposal on board.