

Mulikani Community Bandas are situated on the mouth of the main Tana River where it meets the Indian Ocean. Perched atop the sand dunes, overlooking the ocean, the fresh water river & shade dappled mangrove swamps is a simply built lodge with thatched roof. Mulikani is managed by the community.

There is 35 km's of beach & ocean to enjoy, river fishing, mangroves to explore, boat trips up the main Tana River and over 400 bird species to identify. While at Mulikani Community Bandas you can enjoy interesting nature walks along the top of the dunes can produce wonderful bird sightings as well as occasionally buffalo, elephant, eland, bushbuck sightings.

Mulikani Community Bandas is a simple open lodge structure, with a dining, lounge area. All the kitchen and dining utensils are provided. There are no fridges or freezers and cooking is done over an open fire pit, there is a tin trunk oven.

There are chairs & tables. The lodge is staffed with friendly community members. There is a basic cook and staff to clean & do laundry. The lodge is booked on self catering basis only. Fresh fish can be caught/ purchased daily.

Mulikani Community Bandas accommodation consists of 2 family cottages that sleep 4. Each with 1 double bed 2 singles beds Bed linen, mosquito nets & towels are provided.

There is a shared shower & toilet. While in a uniquely remote location with exciting and unusual access, this 6 bed lodge nevertheless offers all essential comforts as well gorgeous panoramic views out to sea and inland over the delta.