

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara is a simple but classic camp nestled amidst the big figs of the Mara. It offers a panorama of the Burringat and Posee plains on its sides.

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara is conveniently located on the banks of the Talek River, just next to a major wildebeest crossing point. With the river as the only physical boundary between the park and the camp, it offers excellent game viewing.

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara is a simple but classy luxury tented camp, temporary fenced - to keep predators out but allow grazers in - with a bed capacity of 33 guests under canvas.
www.crocodileracers.com

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara tents are spacious with twin or queen sized bed, with bed side tables, luggage racks, rags and floor mats and are fully insect and bug proof. The tents have own flush toilets and bathrooms en suite with running water and hot showers. They have a spacious verandah or deck for outside sitting and game viewing.

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara Lounge, Dinning Area and Bar

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara is fortunate to have a large reception area with a spacious lounge, guest can sit and relax as they await room allocation or just unwind between meals and game drives while reading our informative guide books.

There is also a well stocked gift shop where one can find attractive souvenirs to take home. The bar area is also a popular spot for a quiet evening.

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara Meals

All meals are inclusive in your stay while drinks are not. The food is a fusion of African and International cuisines prepared and presented in a unique African style by our in-house chef.

Food is presented and served in long buffet in the dinner area or at the open bandas overlooking the river and the adjacent park.

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara Activities

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara game drives are conducted daily and can specially arranged at the reception desk or directed with the resident driver/guides. Other activities such as balloon rides, sundowner dinners, visit to Masai village and lectures, nature walks and bird watching are arranged at special guest tariffs.

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara Vehicles

Kichakani Camp Masai Mara has its own game-viewing vehicles with open sides and roof for excellent game spotting and viewing. The vehicles are equipped with HF radios for easy communication with the camp management during game drives encase anything happens to the guests or vehicle.