

OI Seki Hemingways Maasai Mara

OI Seki name is derived from the sandpaper tree - Cordia monoica which is also a symbol of peace. Set on large, dramatic rocks, overlooking the seasonal Isupukiai River, OI Seki Mara Camp enjoys panoramic views in a gorgeous wilderness setting teeming with game. Located in Eastern Koiyaki, north of the Masai Mara game reserve, OI Seki provides a rare opportunity to enjoy wildlife viewing in a pristine setting.

Accommodation

OI Seki Mara Camp offers 6 luxury "Nina" tents, each boasting a 270 degree panoramic view of the famous Masai Mara, along with 2 brand new two bedroom "Suited" tents. www.crocodilerace.com

Nina Tent

A double and a single bed, dressed in the highest quality linen. A large en-suite bathroom and changing area with flush toilet and hot shower.

Library & Dining Tents

The library tent offers an extensive selection of local and international literature. Traditional African décor and colonial furnishing provide the perfect Safari atmosphere.

Dining

Elegant candle lit dinners, romantic dining for couples, bush picnics, sundowners out on the plains and a resident masseuse – a delight for all senses.

Amenities

- 24-hr power to provide lighting through a solar powered inverter system.
- Large sitting room tent
- Library and dining tent
- laundry
- small gift shop
- Wi-Fi internet access in some areas within the camp
- mobile phone network
- no credit card facilities

Activities

- Game drives – day and night to see the wildlife and beauty of the conservancy
- Bush walks - get up close with the landscape and wildlife on guided walks
- Cultural & village visits
- Visits to local Koiyaki Guiding School
- Local N'dorobo talk and demonstration
- Bush breakfasts & lunches
- Sundowners
- Hot air balloon safari's