

Mara Bush Town House is a town like house with a touch of wilderness in the Masai Mara Game Reserve. The house is built in a virgin forest on top of the Elephant hill which is always populated wild animals that can be viewed from the comfort of guest's room.

Mara Bush Town House is small with only 4 bedrooms en-suite designed for private guest who are seeking the feeling of wilderness in a quite environment. Every room has a private balcony overlooking a waterhole allowing a great view of the animals that come to quench their thirst in the heat of the day and also at night.

Mara Bush Town House Accommodation

Mara Bush Town House rooms' are all en-suite and tastefully furnished with African fabrics. Views from the room's balcony offer you spectacular endless vistas. Hot water is available for that well deserved shower after a long journey and the bush experience.

Mara Bush Town House Prices include:

- All government taxes
- Once payment is done, no refund
- Accommodation on full board basis
- No accommodation is confirmed without payment
- The above rates are subject to Change without Notice

Mara Bush Town House Food

Mara Bush Town House meals are prepared by experience and trained cooks to the international standard. The open kitchen next to the dining area gives you an assurance its clean and well prepared. Being a small house a menu of your choice is very well taken.

Mara Bush Town House Bar

Mara Bush Town House bar is well stocked with local and international drinks, all served at the comfort of an open lounge. The house has a flat screen television.

Mara Bush Town House Lighting/Electricity

Mara Bush Town House is eco-environmentally friendly. The bush house uses solar which is clean and quiet.

Mara Bush Town House Activities

Game Drives

Mara Bush Town House game drives are conducted in 4x4 Land Cruisers fitted VHF radio and pop up roof for easy viewing of wild animals.

Nature Walks

Mara Bush Town House nature walks involves a guided trek the wilderness with a Masai guide as an escort. The guides are staff who have lived with animals for ages and are good trackers.

Masai Village

A visit to a Masai village enables you to enjoy and interact with the Masai people who are proud of their culture and heritage. You will dance with them; visit the dung hats made by the women and buy Masai souvenirs at the end of the visit.

Balloon Safaris

Balloon Safaris can be arranged from the Mara Bush Town House. Bush dinner and breakfast are also available activities while stay at the house.

Mara Bush Town House Camping

Mara Bush Town House has a camping site for small tents and the camping site offers hot shower and flush toilets in a fenced area. The camping grounds offers

- Flush toilets
- Leveled pitching pad
- Hot and cold showers
- A secure, fenced ground
- Solar lighting around the camp
- Camera and phone charging facilities
- Choice of self catering or chef choice