

Mahali Mzuri Safari Camp is Sir Richard Branson's tented camp located within the Olare Motorogi Conservancy in the northern region of the Maasai Mara ecosystem. There is also an abundance of resident game all year round.

Sprawling plains can be seen as far as the eye allows. Like most safari lodges, all the rates include all meals and drinks (including alcoholic beverages), daily game drives, unlimited access to the exclusive Olare Orok and Motorogi Conservancies, transfers from the Mara North airstrip, guided bush walks, visits to the local markets, complimentary laundry service (dry cleaning not available) and all taxes. Mahali Mzuri also has a spa treatment room, an infinity pool and free Wi-Fi in throughout the property.

The tents

At Mahali Mzuri Camp you're so close to the action you could join in and play with the baby wildebeests, although we don't recommend it! There are 12 luxury tented suites catering for a maximum of 24 guests at any one time. Each tented suite will sit on a raised platform and include a spacious bedroom with an en-suite bathroom, sitting area and a large deck with views over the landscape - perfect for spotting the game that will almost certainly wander into view!
