Topi House Bush Safari Home is situated in an area with its rolling hills and is ideal for bush picnics, walking and sundowners with a view.

The property is positioned directly on the wildebeest migration route and has been known to experience huge volumes of game right up to the front door. Topi house consists of three well sized en-suite bedrooms which are linked by a large verandah running along the front.

At the far end lies the living area, which is made up of an open plan sitting/dining room complete with an open log fire. Your team will prepare all meals to the usual high standard and will cater for bush picnics or lunches out on the lawn under the shade of the acacia trees. It is an opportunity to explore this wilderness in the company of your personal Masai guide on your own terms.

A fully qualified guide and vehicle will be on hand to assist with a wide range of safari activities which include walking, day or night game drives and visits to local villages and trading centres. Game viewing is done both in the Masai Mara Game Reserve and in the conservancy and so offering a wide range of wildlife viewing experiences.

Topi House Private Bush Safari Home has an additional property, known as Kanga Cottage, with a further two rooms just a 5 minute walk away. This has been designed to accommodate the larger family or group without compromising the comfortable family size of Topi House.
