

The camp that Africa old hands swear by, Little Governors casts its spell over all who visit from presidents to honeymooning couples. The camp is a secluded and intimate luxurious tented camp in the world famous Maasai Mara Game reserve, located in a unique area near a natural water hole with a constant and unrivalled flow of wildlife through out the year.

The camp can easily be accessed by road 320 km southwest of Nairobi or by light aircraft landing at the Musiara Airstrip. Getting to the camp is an adventure in itself; first the Mara River has to be crossed by boat then a short distance walk through the forest escorted by armed guards www.crocodileracers.com
