

The Royal Mara is ideally situated for safari game drive viewing, the lodge is situated in the Koyiaki conservation area approximately five miles upriver from the world renowned Koyiaki-Kichwa migration crossing point and near Leopard Gorge, made internationally known by the BBC's Big Cat Diary television program.

Royal Mara offers a blend of the classic tented safari camp with the amenities of a lodge resulting in a unique luxury tented lodge. There are only 8 riverfront tented chalets built on raised mahogany platforms, providing safety from wild animals roaming through the camp at night.

Each chalet has been individually decorated with artistically handcrafted furniture and magnificent four poster beds. The Chalets are well appointed with; www.crocodileracers.com
