

Scorpio Villas Malindi is a small, attractive hotel where guests stay in Lamu-style, thatched cottages, furnished with hand-carved furniture including a large four poster bed. Every cottage has a large, shady terrace and the dining waiter will serve breakfast here every morning (on your request, or you may wish to dine in the restaurant). The villa accommodation is interspersed with three swimming pools around which you'll find sunbeds and chairs. It is only 100 metres, along a path, to the white sands and 1.5 kilometres from the centre of Malindi. This hotel is conveniently situated and is popular with repeat guests.
