

Tijara Beach Hotel is a luxury hideaway situated a short distance south of Mombasa Island in Pungu Kenya. Tijara Beach is an exclusive retreat set on a seaside bluff in 5 acres of colorful gardens overlooking the Indian Ocean.

At the foot of the cliffs on which the resort perches is its own private beach. A magnificent fresh water pool and 'al fresco' dining area complete this enchanting resort. Owned and managed by Ian & Larissa Manson Hart, this secret hideaway provides a high-end service whose intimate and personal attention gives everyone the feeling of being at home.

Tijara Beach Hotel - Mombasa Accommodation

Tijara Beach Hotel has only four spacious luxury cottages; each sited on its own cliff head with large open decks offer breath-taking views of the Indian Ocean.

The cottages are refreshed by the cooling monsoon breezes that blow gently off the Indian Ocean all year round, and if you find it a little too warm one can make use of the high speed fans.

Tijara Beach Hotel cottages overlook the beautiful grounds and vast expanses of the azure Indian Ocean beyond. All the cottages are spacious with large decked verandas you can step on to from both the room and the bathroom.

All cottages are en-suite with double wash basins, double showers and uninterrupted views of the Indian Ocean from wherever you are! Tijara Beach honeymoon cottage has a king size bath tub to add romance to your occasion.

Tijara Beach Hotel guests will enjoy their privacy and spectacular panoramas from their own private verandas. The traditional Swahili style of Tijara cottages with carved doors and high makuti (coconut thatch) roofs is complimented by exclusively handcrafted Swahili furniture with ornate carvings and rich decoration; some of which was lovingly restored and some specially made by the local craftsmen.

You can take a leisurely stroll Tijara gardens and along the ocean front. The views of Indian Ocean and the fresh clean air will revitalize your spirit!
