

Gazi Retreat is set on the remote and unspoilt beach of Gazi Bay, this extraordinary resort will offer you a holiday with a difference that will inspire you. Located 2 hours from Moi International Airport and 15km from Diani Beach on the South Coast, this resort offers guests – no children under the age of 18 – the opportunity to recharge in this small piece of paradise.

Gazi Retreat tented accommodation consists of 10 luxury lodge tents – set in the tropical and palm tree lined gardens on Gazi Beach. Each luxury permanent tent offers an air-conditioned, 4 poster bedroom; separate Swahili style lounge area with mini bar and en-suite bathroom with romantic shower. With a hint of safarifeel, these private lodges offer a sense of heightened sultry romance on the beach.

Gazi Retreat swimming pool is located a short distance from the tents within the tropical gardens with drinks service available from the butler. The Swahili bar and sun deck are located adjacent to Gazi Beach, ideal for sun worshipping while sipping a sumptuous cocktail. The open plan Swahili restaurant serving snack lunches and buffet dinners overlooks the beach. With the cool evening breeze, it is an ideal setting for a romantic dinner.

Gazi Retreat tented lodge facilities include an aromatherapy massage salon, water sports and deep sea fishing centre, along with nature tours such as our very own eco trip into the enchanting mangroves. Complimentary sunset cruises, snorkeling and sandbank trips (as shown in photos) are part of this experience. This is a beach experience of the soul that leaves guests with memories of purity and innocence.
