

Kitu Kidogo Cottages located in the coastal indigenous bush only 120m from the turquoise Indian ocean this is your perfect holiday home. These self catering cottages are fully furnished and equipped to ensure that your Diani beach holiday is absolutely chilled out and comfortable.

The property is completely fenced off ensuring that your Kenyan beach vacation is in a secure and serene environment. We have menus for the Forty Thieves beach bar so you can always order food and get it delivered right to your cottage.

Kitu Kidogo Cottages are two delightful villas - Firimbi and Sahani, both located just a two minute walk away from the warm tropical Indian Ocean. These modern cottages are made of natural materials; combining sandstone, wood, and coral to create a harmonious environment among the bush and indigenous forest adjacent to the endless stretch of white powdery sands, turquoise seas amid swaying palm trees.

Cottages

Firimbi Cottage - Firimbi is a lovely two bedroom cottage made out of sandstone, coral and wood representing the various textures of East Africa. The interiors evoke memories of the old Africa which was influenced by the spice trade route. Each room is furnished with Swahili, South African and Rajhastani furniture and furnishings. The kitchen is fully equipped to cook scrumptious coastal cuisine. The cottage comes with its outside entertainment and barbeque area which is perfect for lounging in. Both rooms have A/C.

Sahani Cottage - Sahani is a quaint one bedroom cottage and is positioned to maximize the Kaskazi (breeze) from the ocean. It comes fully furnished with an overhead and stand up fan.
