

Tiwi House Beach Cottage South Coast Kenya is a beautifully furnished modern beach cottage with an indigenous Swahili/Arabic style situated at Tiwi Beach, Diani on a cliff top above the Indian Ocean, fourteen kilometres south of Mombasa in Kenya and three kilometres off the main Kenya/Tanzania road. The beach house cottage is one hour from Mombasa's Moi International Airport which has around 10 scheduled services to Nairobi's Jomo Kenyatta Airport daily via Kenya Airways. Tiwi house is 20 minutes from Ukunda Airstrip for private charters and almost daily service to & from Nairobi, Mombasa, the Maasai Mara, Tsavo East and West and Amboseli with Air Kenya and other airlines.

At Tiwi House, the beach cottage is surrounded with many old trees with numerous native birds and wildlife present, including bush babies, vervet and colobus monkeys, monitor lizards, mongoose, dik dik, serval cats and many more. www.crocodileracers.com

Tiwi house has three large bedrooms, all of which have their own bathroom. There is a fourth bedroom, "en suite" with the third. This has three beds and the whole suite is ideal for one family with younger children. A large "infinity" swimming pool, immediately in front of the house, looks over a semi private beach, reef and the Indian Ocean. The cottage will host up to 9 very comfortably and, depending on the guest mix, there is plenty of room for a few more.
