

Terry Homestay Backpackers is a small, clean and welcoming place for the traveller to spend just a few nights or even a few weeks! OUR overnight capacity is around 8 persons maximum, so you'll get that 'small group' fun & interaction with other guests whilst also getting the great service and local knowledge from owner who is a local and have knowledge about Nairobi and Kenya in general.

Terry Homestay is a three bedroom house set up in a residential area but provides solution to students and backpackers accommodation for few days on arrival in NAIROBI. We offer accommodation in our house primarily as the residence of the owner but with the business of accommodating paying guests; a system whereby students /backpackers visiting a foreign country to study, travel, volunteer and explore board with a pluridoxina family at an affordable price.

We only accept a maximum of 6 guest at any one time (Over 18 years) and offer the best of services, we have one dorm for 4 guest and one room for a single private or couple. www.crocodileracers.com

The family home stay are members of CouchSurfing, The Hospitality Club bringing people together! You will not feel like you are tourists but part of a new Kenyan family.
