

Karen Country Lodge & Conference Centre is tucked away in the heart of Karen with a breath-taking view of the indigenous forest are the chic boutique cottages at Karen Country Lodge. Combining eco-friendly sustainability with modern architecture, the cottages are an oasis of comfort for business and pleasure. The individual balconies in each cottage open up to secret walkways that lead to the fresh waterspring, providing a secluded retreat that is perfect for sun-downers or cocktails. The various herb gardens provide a variety of scents and flavours that usually end up on visitors' plates. Set in green and tranquil avenues, Karen Country Lodge offers wining & dining in a myriad of ambient settings. Previously a country bungalow which retains its essential character despite a contemporary decor.

Accommodation & Room Types

Karen Country Lodge consist of 7 Boutique cottages. Each cottage boasts vaulted ceilings with contemporary brushed steel and natural black slate finishes. Each room is graced with a king sized, hand carved, red mahogany bed accessorised with soft, cosy cushions; the perfect place to refresh and relax. Every cottage opens up to an en-suite bathroom made with exquisite Italian marble and twin showers as well as a large stand alone, claw-foot tub.

The spacious open plan lounge area in each cottage is furnished with tastefully designed decor and features a fireplace, making it the perfect place to cosy up with a nightcap or catch up on the latest films on the LCD flat screen TV. Our boutique cottages also come with a fully fitted kitchenette, making you feel immensely at home. www.crocodileracers.com

Dining and staff

Our FIREFINCH RESTAURANT is cosy and inviting and we offer terrific menu choices. Dinner guests gather, whether simply supper, a la carte or joining friends for bitings. Our chefs use only the finest seasonal produce sourced locally where possible, to produce genuinely imaginative dishes that delight and inspire.

Appreciate refreshing alternatives in traditional tastes and splendid service. Bring friends and family for a traditional Sunday roast. Chill out and relax with live music. For tender hand cut selections of mouth watering steaks, char-grilled to perfection, join us each friday for our steak night.

Call in on the way home for a drink and unwind amidst the warm chatter of friends. Our beautiful gardens and fountains provide a peaceful backdrop to soothe your mood. Our bars hold an excellent selection of beers, wines and vintages.
