

Bedouin Camp Samburu Conservancy Kenya is located on the Western border of the famous Samburu Game Reserve within an 83,000 acre exclusive concession of pristine wilderness in the Great Northern Frontier District of Kenya. This stunning tented camp experience returns to the original spirit and essence of safari reminiscent of a golden era of romance, adventure and elegance.

You will experience the ultimate in personalised service and guiding; hosted by owners Craig and Samantha Griffiths and her mother Penny Phillips.

Accommodation

Bedouin camp has eight luxury tents (16 beds) located in pools of shade drawn from the Giant Tortilis Acacia Trees and Doum Palms on the white sand banks of the Ewaso Ngiro River. www.crocodileracers.com
