

Larsens Camp is located in Kenya's famous Samburu National Reserve the camp is named after Erik Ole Larsens a legendary Dane credited with defining the luxury safari under canvas. The Camp is located 320 kilometers north of Nairobi, Larsen's camp rest along the banks of the Uaso Nyiro River offering the guest nothing short of luxury in the wilderness.

The camp offers 20 luxurious tents each facing the river equipped with;

- Room service
- Private en-suite bathrooms
- Mosquito repellents
- Unobstructed game viewing

Services and Amenities include;

- Main Tented Dining Mess
- River front Dining Deck
- A fully stocked bar
- Swimming Pool
- Jacuzzi and Sauna
- Laundry and valet services
- Baby sitting
- Safety deposit Box
- Hair dryer on request
- Full Medical services
- Currency Exchange
- Gift Shop
- Central Safety Deposit Boxes area
- Telephone, Fax and Radio call services
- Internet Services
- 24 hr Electric fence

ACTIVITIES

- Game drives
- Bush breakfast, sundowners and starlit dinners

- Cultural Safaris
- Traditional dances
- Bird Watching
- Picnic Lunches