

Ashnil Aruba Lodge takes its name from the Aruba Dam, an oasis of limpid brown water that forms an irresistible attraction to both man and beast in this dry and dusty Tsavo east National Park. The lodge sits on advantageous watering site overlooking the Aruba dam constructed on Voi River in 1952.

The accommodation consists of 40 deluxe rooms each has a terrace overlooking the plains or the Aruba dam. Each room s designed to provide utmost comfort. All the rooms are en-suite and a variety of room types to chose from; Double rooms, Triple rooms, rooms for the physically challenged and adjoining rooms. www.crocodileracers.com
