

New Paradise is a recently built complex in Watamu, made up of 4 villas that stand in a prestigious location at the entrance to the village, only 200 m from the endless white beaches.

These two-story houses are fully furnished and have large porches, set in a lush garden of palm trees and bougainvilleas.

The accommodation ranges from 2 bedrooms with double bath in the smallest housing units, up to 4 bedrooms and baths in the largest. www.crocodileracers.com

Guests enjoy full access to a lovely 15-meter swimming pool located at the center of the complex.

These houses can be rented for stays of just one week or even for the entire season; the price includes twice-weekly cleaning and change of linens, and night-time guard service. A personal houseboy is available upon request.

You can enjoy many different activities during your stay in Watamu.

Crocodile Racers Adventures Ltd can organize:

- Excursions to the major national parks of Tsavo East and West, Amboseli, and Masai Mara, arranging customized stays directly with the lodges with no middlemen.
- Excursions to the Watamu Marine Park, where you can snorkle surrounded by a rainbow of fish and groups of dolphins, heading inland up the coast to explore the mangroves and spot local birds.
- Visits to the enchanting island of Lamu.
- Excursions to Kaloleni, to see where "Out of Africa" was filmed with Meryl Streep and Robert Redford.

The perfect ingredients for a truly unforgettable experience!
